

Taking it to the Streets this Sunday , Oct. 7

Award-winning Gregg Young, of Gregg Young & the 2nd Street Steel Drum Trio will perform live at the 2018 JetBlue Long Beach Marathon on Sunday, Oct. 7.

Young (Guitar & Vocals), well-versed Pan-Man Ross Harper (Steel Drum) and Casey Jones (Percussion & Vocals) are performing for runners that come from all walks of life. They will be playing at the Shoreline Village Stage from 6 a.m. - 9 a.m.

Young's original song, "Runner," has been dubbed the official song of the Long Beach Marathon. Dually noted, another original track of Gregg's, "Pound the Pavement," is a song meant to inspire runners everywhere. As an avid runner himself, Young is honored to participate in encouraging runners with a beat, pace & groove while giving back to the community through music.

The Trio is no stranger to performing live for runners. Watch their live performance of India Mine at the Long Beach Marathon. Don't miss this amazing community event and award-winning music from Gregg Young & the 2nd Street Steel Drum Trio.

For full details about Young's performance at the JetBlue Long Beach Marathon and other upcoming events, visit Gregg Young & the 2nd Street Band's website www.greggyoung.com