

Grammy FYC For Best Remixed Recording, Together (HK)

LONG BEACH, CA – Gregg Young & the 2nd Street Band recently found out their song, “Together (HK),” is being considered in the Best Remixed Recording Category for the 64th annual Grammy Awards.

“Together (Hk).” Has become an Anthem of peace, love, hope and happiness. The second version, was considered in two categories for the Grammys: Best American Roots Song and Best Roots Performance.

Gregg shared, “Thrilled and excited that we’re being considered for a Grammy!”

Catch them Thursday, August 19 at 5pm to 8pm in Belmont Shore, Long Beach, on the South Side of 2nd Street, the 5300 block, on the parking lot across from the Fire House. It is a Free Public Performance.

The lineup includes Gregg on guitar and vocals, Felice Hernandez on vocals (Pitch Perfect 2, Dora the Explorer, Oingo Boingo), Jayme Palmer on vocals (The Flash, Sleepy Hollow, Englebert Humperdink), Grammy-nominated Kirkwood Coakley on bass, Chris Wabich on drums (Sting, Michael McDonald) and Joey Navarro on keys (Tierra, El Chicano).

It's a generous portion and it was accompanied by sweet moist, crunchy coleslaw and excellent garlic mashed potatoes. There's Southern Fried Chicken, chimichurri topped Sirloin, salads, and sandwiches such as Nashville Hot Chicken, crispy Hot Honey Chicken and more. The Hatch Green Chile Pulled Pork sandwich is a good choice with pulled pork, Hatch green chili seasoning and pepper Jack cheese on Texas Toast.

Wine, beer and cocktails are served at Lucille's. They have specialty margaritas and other drinks including Rhythm and Blues which is very tasty and refreshing at the same time: Tito's Vodka, fresh blueberries, mint and lime juice and St. Germain Elderflower Liqueur. A great drink for a summer day. For something a little stronger, the Gentleman's Old Fashioned has Gentleman's Whiskey, muddled orange and cane syrup and topped with a Luxardo Maraschino Cherry, which is a luxury to be savored.

There's a preferred guest program which features promotions, discounts and more. And they have family feasts which are served family style in two sizes. For dining-in or take-out, there's the Family Supper for 4 to 6 and the Super Feast for 12 or more.

Try to save room fried brownie, but it's more a tower of fried dough, with a delicate flavor. It's amazingly light and comes with great vanilla bean ice cream, whipped cream and sliced strawberries. Wish I could have eaten more.

Besides the location at Second and PCH, Lucille's BBQ are in the Long Beach Towne Center and Cerritos, in the bay area, Nevada and Arizona.

him - who didn't have a choice. It doesn't have to be death. Being in a hospital is horrific. There are so many cases of people who were deniers and who are begging in the hospital to get the vaccine. But it's too late."

On Wednesday, Kiss resumed their postponed End of the Road Tour. The trek runs deep into 2022, with Simmons, who'll hit 72 in a couple weeks, estimating that the band will add "anywhere between 150 to 200 cities additionally." He added, "Backstage, we're not doing any meet and greets. Obviously, we're giving up a pretty penny, because fans pay a premium to come up and take photos and stuff. That's gone. We are not allowing roadies or anybody else to be anywhere backstage unless they're vaccinated and the masks are on the whole time."

STEVIE NICKS, OTHERS CANCEL TOURS, THEN

THERE'S ERIC CLAPTON

Stevie Nicks, Lynyrd Skynyrd and other musical acts are canceling tour dates once more as the highly contagious Delta variant of COVID-19 marauds across the United States because of the millions of anti-vaxxers and anti-maskers.

Then there's Eric Clapton, who now refuses to perform in venues that require proof of COVID vaccinations. In the 1988 romantic baseball comedy classic, "Bull Durham," it's said of young hotshot pitcher "Nuke" Laloosh (played by Tim Robbins), "He's a million-dollar talent with a five cent head." This describes Clapton to a T.
