We Are in This Together!

LONG BEACH, CA – As daily life continues to see more elements of normalcy, one thing is clear: we have persevered through these difficult times by understanding that we all are in this together.

Gregg Young, leader of award-winning Gregg Young & the 2nd Street Band, is set to release the third version of his song, "Together," this time titled "Together (HK)," on the USA's birthday July 4. "Together" is the song that started the phrase craze of "we are in this together!"

The first version was simple, with just Young singing and playing his acoustic guitar. It was released on November 4, 2016. He wrote "Together" as a positive and patriotic song, emphasizing peace, love, hope and happiness. It reminds us of our common humanity and asks us to kindly pause and reflect on what it means to "love thy neighbor."

Young went back into the studio to record the second version called "Together (A)." It has a more robust sound, made up of Cajon, Upright bass, two female vocalists, as well as Young and his acoustic guitar. "Together (A)" was released on September 29, 2017 and was considered in two categories for a Grammy for Best American Roots Song and Best Roots Performance.

The third version, "Together (HK)," was recorded, mixed and mastered at Mambo Sound & Recording in Long Beach. A horn section and keys have been added.
